Dear friends at UVBC,
Pages cannot express our full appreciation and gratitude for the ministry of the UVBC Team that was with us these 10 days, and we praise the Lord for the perfect weather. Each member expressed a positive, joyous, and typical hard-working Kansas spirit as they labored untiringly and uncomplainingly for the glory and praise as unto the Lord. We marvel at how much they accomplished in such a short time. The present and forth-coming groups coming to utilize our property will be greeted with a "new look!" The years of camps and conferences we've had in the past, as they return for future activities, will wonder if they are in the right place! All our Staff and workers at ABECAR will miss the Team in every way. Our prayers will continue for Brother Larry Hicks. Thank you all for your prayers and support. Come back anytime! Neusa and I thank you in a special way for being an extended part of UVBC since my ministry in Hutch in the "50s, and for our being supported as your missionaries in Brazil for over half a Century. Gratefully yours, Until He Comes, Neusa and Willis
